

Puerto Iguazú, Argentina

August 15-24

The Lord clearly went before us preparing the hearts and minds of the 42 couples who gathered from around the country and even from Colombia and Paraguay. This was the first of its kind pastoral couples training conference in Argentina and the energy and excitement about being there was evident from the start. We are thankful for the unity of our team and the impact of the theme focusing on The Supremacy of Christ in our lives, marriages and ministries.

Here are a few of the comments from the participants:

"We return home with our batteries recharged. ☺"

"The week was a balm to our souls."

"It was all that I hoped for; each workshop was a lesson I will carry in my heart. And it will be a privilege to share it with the couples in our congregation! We are leaving more than blessed."

"I thank God for the wonderful days I've spent with my husband, days of learning,
